EVERY SUMMER HAS A STORY

“Max was a part of a team in Sports Camp. He thrived and worked with his coaches and teammates to master the fundamental and technical skills in each sport he played. He was able to try several different sports this summer. That variety gave everyone a chance to shine. When Max was playing a sport he really loved, he was able to help his teammates who might not have as much experience in it, and when he was learning a sport for the first time, his teammates stepped up to help him. That type of teamwork is something he hasn’t found anywhere else.”

AQUATICS

BOYS & GIRLS, RISING PREK-10th GRADES

EVERY SUMMER HAS A STORY

“On Trainer’s first day of camp, I told the ESF team members that I didn’t think they’d ever get him into the pool. We had taken multiple swimming classes at our local pool. I could rarely get him off the wall, and when I did, he clutched onto me for dear life. The aquatics staff at ESF worked really closely with him. They all knew his name, and every day when I came to pick him up after camp, they’d be there giving him high fives and saying how great he did in the pool that day. When Trainer came home and told me he had practiced bobs one day, I honestly couldn’t believe it. Not only did he get off the wall, but he put his head underwater!”
